2 New Pilot Publications Announced

Pilot issues of two publications from the Publications Office will be in the hands of their readers this week.

The BRANCH NEWS, a four page paper, will be issued quarterly. The paper is designed to keep branch students informed of activities both at the branches and on the campus proper. Loyalty for the University is another aim of the NEWS.

EXPONENT, a semesterly publication of the College of Education, will be distributed to alumni of the College of Education.

Both publications are edited by the Publications Office.

FOLK SINGER KAY BRITTEN performs for a full house at last Saturday night's Hootenanny in the Ballroom. The Toppersiders and Addis & Crofut were also featured in the program.

Greeks Required To Cancel Tickets

All students planning to take meals in fraternity or sorority dining rooms must cancel their University-issued meal tickets before Friday in the Housing Office, Robert G. Rudd, director of residence services, stated.

Students not cancelling a meal ticket before Friday will be charged full price for the ticket, regardless of how much was used.

Rudd outlined the following procedure for cancellation: —All students must present to the Housing Office a statement from the assigned dining hall manager indicating if the meal ticket has been used.

—All students are asked to secure another form from the Housing Office on which they are to acquire the housemother's signature (this is verification that the student has been asked to eat in the fraternity or sorority house).

—The above (2) forms are to be returned to the Housing Office, along with the meal ticket, and the cancellation will be immediately processed.

Applications Now Available For Study Grants Abroad

Joint U.S. other government grants are offered cooperatively by the U.S. (which provides travel) and a foreign country (which provides tuition and maintenance); Travel-Only awards which supplement maintenance and tuition scholarships awarded by a university, private donor or foreign government also are available.

Participating countries include Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belgium-Luxembourg, Bolivia, Brazil, Ceylon, Chile, China, Colombia, Costa Rica, Denmark, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Iceland, India, Iran, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Mexico, Nepal, Netherlands, New Zealand, Nicaragua, Norway, Pakistan, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Philippines, Poland, Portugal, Rumania, Spain, Sweden, Thailand, Turkey, United Arab Republic, United Kingdom, and Venezuela.

President Jerome To Speak At First Council Meeting

The appearance of President William T. Jerome III to meet with and address Student Council will highlight the first meeting at 7 p.m., Thursday, in the Taft Room, Council President Robert W. Chism stated.

"As an indication of President Jerome's sincere interest in the students, their problems, and the solution to these problems, he has consented to attend the first Council meeting," Chism stated.

According to Chism, this will be the first time since the adoption of the present Student Body Constitution in 1958, that a University President will have attended a Council meeting.

New Class President

The appointment of a president for the Sophomore Class, and the outlining of tentative Council action for the coming year also are scheduled to occur at the meeting.

As a result of the death of Sophomore Class President-elect Bernard A. Gresick in a Pacific Plane crash, a vacancy has been left in the offices of the Sophomore Class.

Student Council Bill No. 5, Section No. 2 states that in such an event, the President of the Student Body shall appoint, with Council approval, a student to fill such a vacancy. The new officer will be announced at the meeting.

Council Action

Chism plans to outline tentative action for Student Council for the coming year, and appoint the following committees:

—State Issue No. 1: To help in the passage of the extension of the present 1c per pack cigarette tax, which will enable the University to construct a new library.

—Accident Control: To consider speed limits for Ridge Street, and a proposal for a bypass of the "dangerous 'Golden Lily' curve," on U.S. Route 6.

—Registration Procedure: To evaluate the present method of student registration at the University.

—Campus Pride and Alumni

Circulation Desk Adds 3-Day Reserve Books

The Library will add a new category of three-day reserve books to the reserve book system on an experimental basis for this academic year, announced A. Robert Rogers, acting director.

The intermediate category of three-day reserves will be handled at the Circulation Desk along with the one-week reserves. The two-hour reserves still will be handled in the Reserve Room.

In order for faculty members to place a book on three-day reserve, they must complete an orange sheet available at the Circulation Desk, and send it to Miss Evron Collins, head of the Circulation Department.

AFROTC Membership Reaches Record High

Air Force ROTC at the University has the largest corps ever, said Captain Joseph F. Bohren, assistant professor of Air Science. The final number is expected to be approximately 525 cadets. Half of this number is made up of freshmen.

The advanced corps has doubled from last year with more than 120 men enrolled. Fourteen men are in the flight program and have begun training at Bricker Field airport.

The first Common Hour was today with all cadets being addressed by Dr. Kenneth H. McFall, vice-president.

PR's To Sponsor Freshman Smoker

The National Society of Pershing Rifles will hold a smoker for all Army R.O.T.C. freshmen cadets at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Historical Suite.

Cadet Capt. William L. Omernick said, "The freshmen owe it to themselves to come to this smoker and find out what Pershing Rifles has to offer them."

There will be free cigarettes and refreshments passed out at the smoker. This smoker in no way obligates the freshmen to join the organization, but is merely of an informative nature.

Relations: To further school spirit at the University.

—Recruitment: To promote the name of Bowling Green State University.

—Academic Honesty: To encourage the honor system at the University.

—"Who's Who in American Colleges." To point out the quality of University students to the editors of the publication.

—Freshman Representation: To oversee the successful installation of legislation passed last year.

After the regular Council meeting, the Senior Nominating Committee will hold its annual organizational meeting.

Chism pointed out that Council meetings, which are held at 7 p.m. in the Taft Room of the Union, as scheduled in the University calendar, are open to all students to attend.

Automobile Regulations Enforcement To Begin

University automobile registration regulations will be enforced effective tomorrow, Spencer T. Calamuggio, chief security officer, stated.

Student vehicles without the University's yellow registration sticker will be ticketed by the Police Department, and then the owner will be directed to Student Court.

Violators of the automobile registration regulation are subject to a $25 fine.

Calamuggio also reminds students that any articles stolen or lost should be reported immediately to the Police Department.

Upperclass Rush To Begin Sunday

Fraternity "upperclass rush" will begin Sunday, and will continue through Oct. 5, when bids will be issued.

Men students having completed one full semester, or 12 semester hours, at BG with a minimum grade average of 2.0 are eligible.

Registration will be in the Pink Dogwood Suite of the Union from 2:30 to 5 p.m. Thursday and Friday and from 9 to 11 a.m. Saturday. A $2 fee will be required for registration to help the Inter-Fraternity Council meet the cost of rushing materials.

Duplicate Bridge Club Announces 1st Meeting

The Campus Duplicate Bridge Club will begin its fourteenth year with a meeting Sunday at 1:45 p.m. in the Ohio Suite. Directed by Mrs. Evelyn Steidtmann and Dr. Robert J. Keefe, the club meets twice a month throughout the school year.

The club is open to students and faculty members and their friends. A fee of fifty cents per person is charged for each session. Gift certificates are awarded to winning teams. No reservations are necessary.

Officers of the club are Daniel L. Becker, president; John J. Contini, vice president; and Rita Rexford, secretary-treasurer. All students who are interested in playing duplicate bridge are urged to come, with or without partners. For further information call Mrs. Steidtmann or Dr. Keefe.

Drive-In Reading Conference To Hear Leading Educators

Addresses by two leading educators will highlight a Drive-In Reading Conference scheduled for Friday in the Union.

Dr. Mary Austin, professor of education, Western Reserve University, and Dr. Charles H. Wilson, superintendent of the Grosse Pointe Park, Mich. schools, are the speakers.

The Conference will be sponsored by the College of Education and the University Reading Center.

More Than 200 Expected To Attend Day-Long Seminar

The Region I (northwest Ohio) Admissions Conference being held tomorrow in the ballroom is expected to attract more than 200 persons, Charles E. Perry, director of admissions, stated.

This is the first time that the Region I Conference is being held at the University.

Admissions officials from 49 Ohio colleges and universities and principals and guidance counselors from more than 125 area high schools are expected to participate in the day-long seminar which will feature an address by President William T. Jerome III. His topic will be "College Admissions—More Than a Numbers Game."

Conferences dealing with admissions policies and procedures at state and municipal institutions, large private institutions, and small private institutions and a "reverse" college day will be included in the program.

Hosts for the conference will be University Admissions Director Charles E. Perry and Napoleon High School Principal John Johnson. Perry said the conference is being held because of the continuing needs for school-college communications, for the solution of school-college problems, and to acquaint school counselors with admissions procedures.

Similar conferences will be held later this month at Kent State University, Capital University, University of Cincinnati and Ohio University. They are sponsored jointly by the Ohio Association of Secondary School Principals, High School-College Relations Committee of the Ohio College Association, Ohio Association of College Admissions Counselors and the State of Ohio Department of Education.

Campus UCF Center Open Daily—Rev. Davis

The new United Christian Fellowship Building on Thurston Street has opened and will remain open seven days a week, Rev. Eugene Davis, director, has announced.

Daily hours for the new structure are 8 a.m. to 11 p.m.

A Holy Communion service will be held each Wednesday evening at 7 p.m. Formal dedication of the building is slated for Sunday.

Dr. Martha G. Weber, director of the reading center, emphasized that students, faculty and staff members can attend the sessions without cost. Dr. Weber added, "I think it is particularly important that education students attend. It will be a valuable experience since both speakers are so outstanding in the field of education." Dr. Austin will open the morning session at 9:30. She is past president of the International Reading Association and is listed in "Who's Who in American Education". Friday, she will discuss her recently completed four-year Harvard-Carnegie Foundation sponsored study to determine the status of reading instruction in American schools.

Dr. Mary Austin

Following her report, a panel of seven educators will discuss the implications of the study results. Panelists include Dr. Dean Clark, director, Ohio teacher education and certification; Paul W. Briggs, superintendent, Parma City Schools; John L. Rohrs, past president, Ohio School Boards Association; Mrs. William Shapiro, Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers Association; Jay C. Dennis, Ohio School Boards Association; Robert Sizemore, supervisor of reading, Toledo Public Schools; and Dr. Lorrene L. Ort, associate professor of education, Bowling Green.

Dr. Wilson, author of "A Teacher is a Person," will speak on the topic, "Splitting the Reading Atom," at 1 p.m. following a luncheon.

A Word Of Warning

If you are under 21 years of age and plan to drive, or already have an operator's license—better watch your step!

This warning comes from State Director of Highway Safety Warren C. Nelson. Anyone driving a motor vehicle under the age of 21 now has a probationary license according to a new law enacted by the Ohio legislature.

All enforcement agencies and courts are alerted to the new statute, which become effective Friday, Nelson stated.

A probationary operator's license may be revoked by the Registrar of Motor Vehicles when its owner has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to three separate moving violations in any two-year period. The revocation remains in effect for one year. Previously a probationary license was extended to those between the age of 16 and 18.

A probationary chauffeur's license applies to those between the age of 18 and 21. This also may be revoked by the Registrar for the same reasons that a probationary operator's license is revoked. This also applies to a restricted operator's license.

Remember, ignorance of the law is no defense.

To the Editor:

We would publicly like to thank the theatrical cast of this year's Freddie Falcon Revue for their splendid job and for giving us the privilege of working with such professionals. We wish to extend our special thanks to Mr. Tom Gressler, the originator of this musical revue.

Every year a different type of revue is presented to the incoming freshmen—Mr. Gressler's production is without a doubt, the best to have been presented in the four years we have been associated with the show.

To the Editor:

Racism easily works to the destruction of the democratic process, and to the maintenance of an authoritarian state. Consider recent German, Italian, and Japanese history. Witness the current racial emphasis in Communist China. Next year's presidential election could become dominated by racism. Not that the candidate will admit racism or even take a clear stand on the racial issue. But far less popular stands may have the overall effect of securing for a particular candidate the racist vote. Even if not elected, this candidate could confuse racism with other national issues in the American mind. Should a dialogue emerge non-racist on the surface, but looking for support from racists, adequate evaluation of national problems would become difficult. Inadequate evaluations of our problems due to racist undertones could endanger the political process itself. For these reasons Americans should combat racism. To do this they need not alter their positions on the race issue. They need alter, only, the nature of their arguments for or against integration.

One could be an integrationist without a social affinity with, or an extraordinary belief in the moral rights of, the Negro race. Integration would differentiate the race socially, economically, and culturally. Granted individual opportunity, the race as race would cease to be a public menace. Race as race, right or wrong, black or white, is always a public menace.

Whatever our reasoning on the racial issue, we must avoid argument, which to be accepted by others, must presuppose racist bias. Fortunately, racists do not all read the same "Hate Book." Their differing as to the degree of their racism, it is possible to continue the battle for or against civil liberties, yet contain the racial conflict within the actual framework of that particular problem. Racism may or may not be unjust. But it certainly is difficult to untangle from other issues. And it is often violent in expression when it becomes an overriding issue.

BG Lacks 'Class' In 27-14 Triumph

By Neil Sanders
NEWS Sports Editor

A surprisingly strong performance by virtually untested quarterback Jerry Ward, accented by the effective running of second team all-MAC halfback Jay Cunningham, offset an otherwise unpolished showing Saturday as Bowling Green was forced to come from behind for a 27-14 opening victory over a scrappy Detroit Titan aggregation.

Hitting on 12 of 20 attempts for 215 yards, Ward gave the estimated 11,000 crowd an aerial display the likes of which hasn't been seen on the Bowling Green gridiron for many a year. Faking exceptionally well, Ward handled the Falcons expertly and displayed considerable poise in several pressure situations.

Cunningham, made especially effective by the adequate running of Tom Reicosky, gained 101 yards in 23 carries and led almost every offensive charge through the line as a decoy.

The Falcon's successful debut was marred by glaring missed blocking assignments, particularly in the backfield, and lack-lustre tackling as the supposedly out-manned Titans had the defending MAC champions on the defensive the majority of the afternoon.

Capitalizing on Bowling Green's mistakes and the determined efforts of hard-running fullback Fred Beier and elusive Dennis Assenmacher, the Titans all but dominated the first half as the Falcon's found themselves on the short end of a 14-6 intermission score.

Detroit scored first, marching 69 yards in 17 plays early in the second period after taking possession on its own 31 following a poor punt by the Falcon's fine punter, Norm Limpert. Limpert, the best in the MAC last season with a 38.1 average, got under the ball as it covered just 19 yards.

The sporadic Falcon defense, however, forced a 4 and 7 punting situation three plays later but an over-anxious John Jennings drew a roughing the kicker penalty to give the Titans possession on their own 49. Beier took charge at this stage, driving his 201-pound frame against the massive BG line for 45 yards in nine carries and then driving for the TD from the two-yardline.

With Ward connecting on Key aerials, Bowling Green quickly evened the score with diminutive Tony Trent climaxing a sustained 83-yard drive at 1:48.

A lot of action remained in the initial half, however, as Detroit's Tom Zientek, a promising but inexperienced quarterback from Toledo Central Catholic, released a bomb from his own 34 on the second play after the kickoff which George Walkowsky gathered in on the BG 30 and brilliantly outmaneuvered two would-be Falcon tacklers for an electrifying touchdown. Zientek rolled out looking for a receiver and founds loads of running room in a successful PAT attempt to push the Titan margin to 14-6.

The second half was Bowling Green's as the tired, out-sized Titans failed to put together another effective offensive effort. Defensive end Wayne Smith pounced on a Titan fumble at the 38 which Bowling Green quickly converted into a TD with Cunningham crashing over from the four after Ward had teamed with sensational Tom Sims who caught two passes totaling 53 yards during the drive.

Still trailing 14-12, Bowling Green took over on the BG 33 following a Titan punt and 14 plays later hit paydirt with Ward sneaking over from the one. Fullback Jim Wisser blasted over the middle for the PATs to give the Falcons a 20-14 lead.

LEADING GROUND GAINER Jay Cunningham is hit hard by Detroit's Leo Rossi (78) and another unidentified Titan player after short yardage. Cunningham picked up 101 yards in Saturday's 27-14 win.

About Sports

By Neil Sanders

Although we successfully predicted the 21-12 Xavier upset over pre-season MAC favorite Miami, our total performance left something to be desired, missing on three of 8 selections for a .632 percentage. Upstart Buffalo re-venge a 41-7 setback last season by edging Ohio University 7-0, Marshall was humbled by Morehead 19-6, and Dayton surprised Toledo 22-19 to mess up the percentage.

Wisconsin experienced little difficulty with Western Michigan, smashing the Broncos 41-0 (We said 36-0), Alabama defeated Georgia 32-7, Southern California finally disposed of stubborn Colorado 14-0, and Bowling Green outlasted Detroit 27-14 (Our prediction, 28-14).

Don't expect to see as wide-open football as displayed Saturday every game. The Falcons were forced away from their traditional conservative "three yards and a cloud of dust" style by the hard-playing Titans. Fortunately, they learned an occasional "gamble" is necessary once in a while.

Bob Koval (67), Detroit's 210-pound co-captain, put on a fine performance Saturday and indicated possible All-American consideration. His eagerness (?) might have lost the game for the Titans, however, for it was his unnecessary roughness penalty which led to Bowling Green's third touchdown after the drive had apparently stalled.

Tom Sims and Jim Goings were likewise impressive in the Detroit encounter. The sticky-fingered Sims pulled in three difficult receptions and should be one of the MAC's best. Goings almost broke loose twice on kickoff returns and was consistently a few steps beyond his defenders on pass patterns.

Cleveland PLAIN DEALER sports columnist Hal Lebovitz tagged the Falcon's massive line as "a ton of fun", stating further that Jay Cunningham could gain yardage in 325-pound Tony Lawrence's shadow.

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED continues to speak highly of Bowling Green and the Mid-American Conference. In its annual collegiate football issue, SI listed the Falcons as overwhelming favorites in the MAC and stated that the competitive conference "continues to play on a par with the lower rung of the Big Ten."

SI overlooked, however, Bowling Green head coach Doyt Perry in listing the 11 best coaches of the last five years. We regard this as an appalling oversight since Perry is the most successful coach in collegiate football and is 39-4-1 over the last five years. In comparison, SI recognized Missouri's Dan Devine (34-12-4), Auburn's Ralph Jordan (36-12-2), Arkansas's Frank Boyles (37-13) and several others with less impressive records. Only Johnny Vaught of Mississippi has a five-year record surpassing Perry's, boasting a 44-4-1 mark, including just one loss since 1960.

Harriers Improved; Binkley Ineligible

Coach Mel Brodt's 1963 cross country squad appears to be stronger than last year's team which compiled a 16-9 record. At the same time, however, the Falcon's opponents also have improved.

As Coach Brodt puts it, "Although we'll have a much stronger team performance-wise, we're going to be facing tougher competition. We have improved quite a bit, but some of our opponents are more improved."

Five lettermen are returning from the '62 squad. Heading the list are co-captains Dale Cordova and Lloyd Kime.

Cordova, a junior, figures to be the harrier's lead runner. He almost certainly will carry the load since last season's pace-setter, Barry Binkley, is out of competition because of scholastic ineligibility.

Binkley finished first in five meets last season. He set a new Bowling Green varsity four mile record when he ran a 20:15 at Notre Dame, breaking Mel Turner's record of 20:18.4, set in 1958.

Sophomore Steve Strommger is the squad's number two man. Following Strommger are Dick Elsasser, Kime, Tom Steury, and Bob Rothermel.

State To Raise Highway Speed

The Ohio Department of Highways announced that on Monday maximum speed on freeways outside municipalities jumps to 70 miles-per-hour, and on freeways inside municipal corporations to 60 miles-per-hour.

State Directors Warren C. Nelson of the Department of Highway Safety and P. E. Masheter of the Highway Department warn, however, that motorists should adjust their speed to existing road, weather conditions, and posted traffic signs.

"It is a myth," stated Nelson and Masheter, "To think it is safe and legal to exceed a posted speed limit by 10 or 15 miles-per-hour. Enforcement agencies through the state have been alerted to watch for these speed violators."

Nelson and Masheter went on to say that according to the law, motorists can be arrested for speeding even when they are traveling under the legal speed. This is called excessive speed, meaning driving too fast for road and weather conditions.

when most dollar pens are out of ink

the Scripto Wordmaster®refill has enough left for a term paper

...and a couple of lab reports

Just about the time you figure your Wordmaster should be running out of ink, unscrew the cap. The new see-thru refill says in no uncertain terms that you've got enough ink left to go on writing for quite a while. You shouldn't be surprised. For even though Wordmaster is slim and streamlined, it has a much larger ink capacity than ordinary dollar pens. And that makes it just about the most inexpensive dollar pen around.

By the way...you can get a handsome matching pencil to go along with your Wordmaster. And that's only a dollar, too.
